In the Gospel, Jesus describes the eschatological banquet of heaven in the parable. He characterizes the reign of God as a wedding feast, a banquet of "calves and fatted cattle." When the banquet is rejected by the chosen guests, it is offered to all and sundry. God loves his people and provides for their eternal salvation. Jesus gives us the strong warning that if we do not accept His love, if we reject His gift, we can have no place with Him. Let us reflect about it!
