Today's gospel teaches, Christ-like leadership calls for integrity and honesty from all those in authority, whether priests, parents, teachers or politicians. There should be in leaders no double standards, but rather a deep sense of equality with, and mutual respect between, leaders and those they rule, and a desire in both to serve. Service, not status, is the mark of this new community, and true humility is the only position its members should seek.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

- The Finance Committee would like to remind you that it is customary that you give some money as gift to the Deacon or priest whenever Weddings, Quincianeras, Baptisms or special masses are celebrated.
- Finance Committee also would like to remind you that you need to inform and get prior permission from Fr. Baijai, our pastor, before buying or ordering anything for your ministries, office, church or kitchen. It is not to discourage anyone but to organize our finances

SHARE YOUR WISDOM

If you have finished reading your books and if you would like to share your wisdom with others, please donate your books to the church. We will make those books available to others to read.

BAPTISMS

Parish membership is required. Baptism preparation for parents and sponsors is held monthly prior to baptisms. You will need your copy of the baptism class registration and the child's birth certificate. If you have any questions, please call the office.

MASS INTENTIONS

If you would like a Mass celebrated for someone who has died or for another intention, please let us know. Call the office and speak with Nickle so that she can schedule with you what day and what time your intention will be remembered and prayed for. Please note that there may be a waiting period before an intention can be placed.
